

Donald W. Boose, Jr.

---

SUMMARY

29 years experience teaching at the U.S. Army War College; U.S. Army Command and General Staff College; and Wilson College. 13 years experience formulating and implementing U.S. national security and military strategy, conducting international negotiations, and planning theater level operations. Published writer on military history, national security issues, and Northeast Asia regional security issues.

EXPERIENCE

Teaching

Contract Faculty Instructor, U.S. Army War College 1992-Present

- Contract Faculty Instructor, Department of Distance Education 1992-present: taught national, military, and theater strategy; operational art; counterinsurgency and stability operations; history; Asian regional studies; and Pacific War Strategy.
- Supporting Faculty Instructor, Asian Regional Studies Elective 2007-08, 20011-13.
- Seminar Faculty Instructor, Reserve Component National Security Issues Seminar 1992-1995 and 1998-2006.
- Contract Faculty Instructor, USAWC Resident Course 2 (War, National Policy, and Strategy) 1992, 1997, 1998, and 1999 and Acting USAWC Director of Asian Studies 1997 and 1998.

Lecturer, Wilson College 1992-1995

- Developed a 30-credit-hour course on the history and culture of Northeast Asia, prepared the syllabus and lectures, and developed audio-visual and other graphic material to support the instruction.
- Taught the course to students in the on-campus and adult learning programs.

Director of Asian Studies, U.S. Army War College 1990-1992

- Taught Course 2 (War, National Policy, and Strategy) and the strategy portion of Course 6 (Strategic Vision and Strategy Formulation).
- Developed and taught Course 5 (Asia/Pacific Regional Strategic Appraisal) and advanced courses "Challenges to U.S. Security Interests in Asia" and "The U.S. Military in Northeast Asia."
- Managed the Army War College Pacific Regional Team.
- Served as the Army War College Asia/Pacific subject matter expert.

Korean Specialist/Strategist and Instructor, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College 1978-1981

- Taught Low Intensity Conflict and Security Assistance Operations.
- Developed and taught "Problems of Political and Economic Development: A Military Perspective" and "Korea Orientation" electives.
- Advised the Commandant on Asia/Pacific regional issues.
- Assisted in the formulation of Low Intensity Conflict doctrine.

Formulating and Implementing National and Military Strategy and

Policy

Chief of Strategy and Policy (Assistant Chief of Staff/J5), Headquarters, U.S. Forces, Japan 1987-1990

- Prepared U.S. Forces, Japan input to U.S. National Security Strategy and Military Strategy.
- Formulated U.S. negotiation strategy and conducted negotiations with Japanese counterparts.
- Managed and coordinated (with Japanese general officer counter-parts) the Japan-U.S. bilateral interoperability, research and analysis, and studies programs.
- Advised the Commander, U.S. Forces, Japan, on strategy, command relations, civil-military operations, government relations, and politico-military issues.

Secretary, United Nations Command Component of the Military Armistice Commission, Korea 1984-1987

- Formulated United Nations Command (UNC) inputs to U.S. National Security and Military Strategy.
- Developed U.S. policy on Armistice and UNC issues.
- Prepared UNC strategy, policy, and negotiating positions and conducted negotiations with North Korean and Chinese counterparts.
- Represented the UNC in dialogue with American Embassy, Republic of Korea Government, and United Nations officials.
- Monitored all activity in the 151 mile Korean Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) and supervised the investigation of Armistice violations and other DMZ incidents.

Politico-Military Planner, Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Washington 1981-1984

- Advised the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff on all matters relating to U.S. national security policy and strategy toward Korea.
- Prepared the Asia/Pacific portion of Joint Strategic Planning Documents.
- Represented the Joint Staff at interagency meetings and international forums involving Korean politico-military issues.

Assistant Secretary, Chief of Operations, and Chief of Language Division, United Nations Command Component of the Military Armistice Commission, Korea 1975-1978

- Led the multinational Joint Observer Team, monitored DMZ activity, and investigated Armistice violations and other DMZ incidents.
- Developed UNC strategy, policy, negotiating tactics, and game plans for Military Armistice Commission meetings.
- Conducted weekly meetings with North Korean and Chinese counterparts.
- Supervised translation activities of 12 Chinese and Korean interpreter-translators.

Writing/Editing/Consulting/Exercise Support

- Books: Ashgate Research Companion to the Korean War, co-editor; 2014; Over the Beach: Army Amphibious Operations in the Korean War, Combat Studies Institute Press, 2008; U.S. Army Forces in the Korean War, Osprey Publications, 2005; Recalibrating the U.S.-Republic of Korea Security Alliance, co-editor, Strategic Studies Institute, 2003; Conference Report: International Workshop on the U.S.-ROK Alliance, Strategic Studies Institute, 1996; Great Battles of Antiquity, co-author, Greenwood Press, 1994.

- Articles, review essays, and book reviews in Global War Studies, Parameters, H-Diplo, Military Review, The Journal of Military History, The Hawaiian Journal of History, The Magazine of History, and Korean Studies. Book chapters on Asia security issues and military history. Twenty-three articles on politico-military aspects of the Korean War and order of battle appendix in Spencer C. Tucker, ed., The Encyclopedia of the Korean War (New York: ABC Clío, 2000 and 2010). Book chapters on the Korean War in various publications.
- Lectures and presentations on warfare in ancient Asia, conflict termination in the Korean War, command relations in the Korean War, classical Chinese military theory, the United Nations Command in the Korean war, Korean War combat operations, and Army amphibious operations.
- Developed course materials and faculty instructor materials and taught faculty instructors how to teach theater strategy and operational art using Korean War historical examples 2000-2008.
- As an independent contractor, served as Country Team Advisor and Force Manager for the USAWC Strategic Crisis and Strategic Decision Making Exercises 2000-2006, 2008-2010.
- As a Military Analyst for MPRI, developed and wrote the Army War College Strategic Crisis Exercise (SCE) 96 national security and national military strategy documents and the SCE 97 economic and foreign aid documentation, supported Army After Next 97 and SCE 98.
- As a Senior Military Analyst for Cubic Applications, Inc., developed curriculum materials for the Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies.
- As a Consultant for Defense Group, Inc. (now Centra Technologies) analyzed future North Korean asymmetrical challenges.

EDUCATION

Civilian

- PhD Candidate (History), University of Kansas 1979-1981 (studies interrupted due to military duties)
- MA (Asian Studies), University of Hawaii, 1973
- BA (Anthropology), Cornell University, 1962

Military

- U.S. Army War College, 1986
  - Defense Security Assistance Management School, 1979
  - Foreign Area Officer resident study, Korea, 1975
  - U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, 1974
  - Psychological Operations Unit Officer Course, 1971
  - Defense Language Institute, Korean Language Course, 1971, 1974
-